HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA (LEGAL BASIS FOR PROCESSING)

Lynlea West Studio take your privacy very seriously and will never disclose or share your data without your consent, unless required to do so by law or for the verification of services by certification organisations. We only retain your data for as long as is necessary and for the purposes specified in this notice. Where you have consented to us providing you with promotional offers and marketing, you are free to withdraw consent at any time.

The purposes and reasons for processing your personal data are detailed below:

We collect your personal data in the performance of a contract or to provide a service. We collect your personal data to respond to enquiries and to supply relevant marketing information about our services.

YOUR RIGHTS

You have the right to access any personal information that Lynlea West Studio processes about you and to request information about:

- ◇ What personal data we hold about you
- ◇ The purposes of the processing
- ◇ The categories of personal data concerned
- ◇ The recipients to whom the personal data has/will be disclosed
- ◇ How long we intend to store your personal data for
- ◇ If we did not collect the data directly from you, information about the source

If you believe that we hold any incomplete or inaccurate data about you, you have the right to ask us to correct and or complete the information and we will strive to update or correct it as quickly as possible, unless there is a valid reason for not doing so, at which point you will be notified.

You also have the right to request erasure of your personal data or to restrict processing in accordance with data protection laws, the right to data portability where applicable, and the right to object to processing, including for direct marketing purposes or where processing is based on legitimate interests.

Where we rely on your consent to process your personal data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time.

You also have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affects you, and to request human intervention where applicable.

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) if you believe that we have not handled your personal data in accordance with data protection law.

If we receive a request from you to exercise any of the above rights, we may ask you to verify your identity before acting on the relevant request; this is to ensure that your data is protected and kept secure.

You have the right to request a copy of any of your personal data that we hold (where such data is held). Under the data protection laws, no fee is payable, we are required to reply to you within one month, and we will provide any and all information in response to your request free of charge, provided the request is reasonable. If we require clarification to help us locate the information you are seeking, we may pause the one-month response period until we receive that clarification. We will also carry out a search that is reasonable and proportionate based on the scope and nature of your request. Please contact us.

SHARING AND DISCLOSING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We do not share or disclose any of your personal information without your consent, other than for the purposes specified in this notice or where there is a legal requirement. We may be required to share limited information to enable certification organisations to verify that services have been supplied according to their standards. Lynlea West Studio uses third-parties to provide defined services and business functions, however all processors acting on our behalf and business partners only process your data in accordance with instructions from us and comply fully with this privacy notice, the data protection laws and any other appropriate confidentiality and security measures.

WHERE WE STORE YOUR PERSONAL DATA AND INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS

We store your personal data in the United Kingdom, the European Union (EU) and, where necessary, in countries outside of the UK and EU (known as “third countries”).

If we transfer your personal data outside the UK or EU, we will ensure that the country or organisation receiving the data provides a level of protection for personal data that is not materially lower than that provided under UK data protection law. This may include:

- Transfers to countries that the UK Government or European Commission have formally recognised as providing adequate protection for personal data;
- Using specific contractual protections, such as the UK International Data Transfer Agreement, the UK Addendum to the EU Standard Contractual Clauses, or the EU Standard Contractual Clauses, together with supplementary measures where required;
- Relying on another legally permitted basis for the transfer under applicable data protection laws.

Where we use service providers or partners who process personal data in third countries, we take steps to verify their compliance with these requirements and ensure appropriate safeguards are in place.

SAFEGUARDING MEASURES

We take your privacy seriously and we take every reasonable measure and precaution to protect and secure your personal data. We work hard to protect you and your information from unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure or destruction.

CONSEQUENCES OF NOT PROVIDING YOUR DATA

You are not obligated to provide your personal information to us, however, as this information is required for us to provide you with our products or services, we will not be able to offer some/all of our products or services without it.

HOW LONG WE KEEP YOUR DATA

We only ever retain personal information for as long as is necessary and we have strict review and retention policies in place to meet these obligations. We are required under UK tax law to keep your basic personal data (name, address, contact details) for a minimum of 5 years after which time it will be destroyed. Where we are using your details for direct marketing, we will keep such data until you notify us to delete the data or withdraw your consent.

PROMOTIONS & OFFERS

Occasionally, we would like to contact you with details of the products and services that we provide. If you consent to us using your contact details for these purposes, you have the right to modify or withdraw your consent at any time by using the opt-out/subscribe options or by contacting us directly.

LODGING A COMPLAINT

If you have any concerns about how we collect or use your personal data, we encourage you to contact us in the first instance using the details below so that we can try to resolve the issue. We aim to respond to all complaints within 30 days. Where your concern is complex or requires more time, we will let you know and keep you updated on progress.
